FOREWORD

Humorous, sad, and gay thoughts run through our minds as we recall the events of the 1962-63 school year. In this annual, we have tried to capture each memorable moment so that in years to come, while glancing through these pages, many wonderful high school days and friends will vividly come to mind.

The year started rather normally only to be sobered by the Cuban Crises, which seemed to pry into every heart and bring out the humanity in all of us. Soon afterwards our halls were filled with the hustle and bustle of homecoming. With the pep rally, the bonfire, and the homecoming party everyone was left with a warm feeling. As the year advanced, Christmas came bringing with it a cheerful atmosphere, (and a two week holiday.) When school again was back to normal, banquets, parties, ball games, and graduation were still yet to come.

Through the past months, we have had many opportunities to learn, and to advance toward adulthood. We have tried to portray in pictures the spirit of New Home High School. We hope we have been successful.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

To The Annual Staff:

It gives me pleasure to offer congratulations to the Annual Staff for the extra time and effort you have spent in developing the school annual. I hope you have learned much from this endeavor.

I feel sure everyone will enjoy the happy school days at New Home when they look at your annual in years to come.

Again I say congratulations!

Sincerely,

H. L. Miller

PRINCIPALS' MESSAGES

Here is a picture book of people - your friends. It is a book of memories - your memories. It is a book which, with age, will become more precious. This annual picture is a true reflection of all the joys, disappointments, pleasures, and hardships which highlighted a year of school life.

May you teachers and students remember and cherish the challenges, the accomplishments, and above all, the friends you have made this year.

J. G. Miller

MR. J. G. MILLER
Grade School Principal

You are the future citizens of your country. In the future you will take over the management of the affairs of the nation. What you do and learn now will either help or hinder you in the future. Make the best of your opportunities.

As your principal, I wish to commend you for your co-operation in the past. Let us all strive to do better the things we shall do.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the senior class of 1962-63, being of sound mind and body do hereby make this our last will and testament.

MURIEL SWINSON leaves her ability to constantly foul in basketball to Shirley Smith. Every team needs one like Muriel (only one).

JANICE TIMMONS bequeaths her quiet ways to Linda Timmons and Patsy Swinson.

LOUANN HARSTON leaves Josephine Castro her long legs. Perhaps now Josephine can get to school before the last bell.

TANYA UNFRED reluctantly leaves her bottle of peroxide to Janie Milliken, so that Janie can come to school next year with a different hair color each day.

ROY FRED DRAPER leaves to Barbara Draper his ability to keep Mr. Baker company, Betty Unfred confused, and teachers guessing.

JOHN LYNN EDWARDS leaves Max Blakney and Elton George his talent for being a ladies man. The girls just will not have a chance!

LONETTE RUDD, to try to even up the odds with the boys, leaves Treva Keith her flirty ways.

AMADOR CANTU bequeaths his fine manners to Dave Hancock, who has enough of his own.

GLENDA HALFORD leaves her tricks on how to catch a man to Gailyn McMillan. Good luck next year, Gail.

LUPE CASTRO and CAROLYN OVERMAN leave their friendship to Terry Brown and Jerry Dale Todd.

The whole SENIOR CLASS leaves its grades to David Unfred. We hate to give them to anyone, but we know David can improve them.

Finally BACYCLE SALMON just leaves.
